

PROVEN SUCCESS: TESTIMONIALS FROM CATECHISMCLASS.COM USERS

Your amazing program gave me the chance to deepen my faith and to bring me closer to God. Thank you for providing this opportunity for me to explore in depth Jesus and the Bible. I am telling all my friends and family how thorough and compelling your classes have been for me. Most sincerely -- Janice Y.

I consider it is great resource. It really flexible for those who not have a regular schedule. You gave us a great material, really interesting, and organized. I recommend this program. -- Irma V.

I really enjoyed working through these religion classes with my daughter, they are very traditional and similar to what I went through as a child. I think your company did a great job with everything! Thank you so much again for everything! -- Steve L.

I attended public schools, which meant we were packed off to CCD classes one evening a week. The acronym stands for Confraternity of Christian Doctrine, but it could have stood for Catholic Children Daydreaming. That's how boring it seemed, and the result was that that was the last religious instruction many of my peers had. So what to do for your kids? You might want to take a look at an online program called CatechismClass.com. It is for kids through twelfth grade, though I suspect not a few adults would find it a good refresher. The entire program is given over the computer at the student's own pace. I've taken a look at the site, and it certainly looks to be a step up (a very big step up) from the CCD classes I took. -- Karl Keating, Founder of Catholic Answers, E-Letter (8/31/04)

This is an amazing option for people looking for an in depth education of our faith at your own pace. This was a perfect solution for our busy schedule, but we still learned just as much, if not more than in a traditional classroom setting! -- Anonymous

I have signed up my 3 boys (ages 16, 14, and 9). They come from divorced parents and getting them to complete CCD classes has been impossible. They have yet to complete confirmation and communion. I found this online and wanted to tell you THANK YOU! This is so awesome. -- Bernardita T.

Your site's course was so thorough and impressive. My wife and I will recommend to all our friends!! -- Matt H.
